UNIMO Exports Private Limited

Company Profile

UNIMO Exports Private Limited has its origins in the nearly century old Union Motors Group of companies, a pioneer in the automotive industry in India. Founded by Sri K. Gopalakrishna, the group promoted Standard Motors - one of only three companies to make passenger cars in India's pre-liberalization era. The Union Motors Group also pioneered manufacturing high quality automotive components under various brands.

UNIMO's key personnel include those with a vast experience both in the automotive & engineering component manufacturing and export marketing. With their keen sense of market trends in the automotive industry, UNIMO is in a perfect position to bridge the gap between auto component suppliers and customer needs worldwide.

The company exports high quality automotive components to markets worldwide, including Europe, Middle east, Africa, Australia and South-east Asia and South America. We have decades of relationship with customers in some of the high quality and demanding markets like Germany and the UK. Other countries where we have our customers include Belgium, France, Italy, Belarus, Russia, Dubai, Sri Lanka.

Please visit our website www.unimoexports.com for further details of our company and our products. Please refer to the attached presentation for detailed information of our products.

We will be happy to share with you more information based on your specific requirement.
