

Why Origin?

Global Brands

Origin brings to you the world's finest brands in portable dehumidifiers from 'Made in Germany' Aerial to Singapore's finest Novita and Fral from Italy.

Ready Delivery

If you need it, consider it delivered. We have ready stock to deliver at your doorstep using India's finest courier service.

All India Service Network

If you need service assistance, we will travel to your site* to solve the problem across India (in represented areas only).

Plug & Play Operation

Our portable dehumidifiers are plug and play units which can start performing the moment they land at your premises and very simple to operate.

Energy Savings

Our dehumidifiers consume 1/10th energy consumed by air conditioners to keep the room dry and we also have the lowest energy consuming dehumidifier in Asia.

Expert Advice

Our team understands humidity best and with the help of advanced calculations, we will help you buy the right dehumidifier, helping you save on capital and running cost.
